- 17.7 Promptly upon request the Supplier shall provide the Customer with a form signed by a director of the Supplier verifying in writing its compliance with the requirements set out in this clause 17.

18. General

- 18.1 Force majeure: Neither party shall be liable for failure or delay in the performance of its obligations caused by or resulting from force majeure which shall include, but not be limited to events which are unpredictable, unforeseeable or irresistible, such as any severe weather, flood, landslide, earthquake, storm, lightning, fire, subsidence, epidemic disease, acts of terrorism, outbreak of hostilities (whether or not war is declared), riot, explosions, strikes or other labour unrest (except in the case of the Supplier strikes or other labour unrest of the Supplier's employees), civil disturbance, sabotage, expropriation by governmental authorities and any other act or any event that is outside the reasonable control of the concerned party. However neither Party may rely on this clause for any event that would be avoided by the implementation of business continuity and/or disaster recovery plans that a prudent provider operating in accordance with best industry practice would have employed in the circumstances. If such event or circumstances prevent the Supplier from supplying the Goods and/or Services for more than 4 weeks, the Customer shall have the right, without limiting its other rights or remedies, to terminate this Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Supplier.
- 18.2 Assignment and subcontracting:
- The Supplier shall not assign, transfer, charge, subcontract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Customer.
 - The Customer may at any time assign, transfer, charge, subcontract, or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights under the Contract and may subcontract or delegate in any manner any or all of its obligations under the Contract to any third party or agent.
- 18.3 Notices: All notices shall be in writing and posted to the party's registered address (or such other address as a party advises by notice from time to time) using recorded delivery. Acknowledgement of recorded receipt shall be taken as receipt for purposes where timing is required under the Contract.
- 18.4 Waiver and cumulative remedies: Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Contract, no failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any right, power or privilege set forth in the Contract will operate as a waiver of any right, power or privilege. If either Party waives a breach of the Contract that waiver is limited to that particular breach.
- 18.5 Severance: If any part term or provision of the Contract not being of a fundamental nature, be held illegal or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the Contract shall not be affected.
- 18.6 No partnership: Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a partnership or joint venture or create a contract of employment of any kind between any of the parties, nor constitute any party the agent of another party for any purpose. No party shall have authority to act as agent for or create or accept any liability, obligation or commitment on behalf of the other party or to bind the other party in any way.

- 18.7 Third parties: Except as explicitly specified herein the Contract does not create any right enforceable by any third party under the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.
- 18.8 Variation: Any variation, including any additional terms and conditions, to the Contract shall only be binding when agreed in writing by an authorised representative of the Customer. Any discussions, which may take place between the parties in connection with a request before the authorisation of a resultant change to the Contract, will be without prejudice to the rights of either party.
- 18.9 Survival: The parties' rights and obligations, which, by their nature would continue beyond the termination, cancellation or expiration of the Contract, shall survive termination, cancellation or expiration of the Contract.
- 18.10 Right of Audit: The Supplier shall, on reasonable written notice in advance, allow the Customer or its agents to access any of the Supplier's premises, personnel, records and systems used by the Supplier in the provision of the Goods and/or Services as may be reasonably required to verify the accuracy of any charges and the Supplier's compliance with the terms of the Contract and with applicable laws or regulations. Each party shall meet its own costs in performing and assisting in an audit.
- 18.11 Dispute Resolution:
- The parties intend to attempt to resolve disputes informally. In the event that a disagreement between the parties arising out of, or in relation to, the Contract cannot be resolved by the parties themselves the parties shall submit to resolution by arbitration as set out in this clause 18.11.
 - Where a dispute has not been resolved by the parties within thirty (30) days after it has first arisen either party may refer the dispute to arbitration by reference to: (i) for disputes of a monetary value of up to £100,000, the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators' Business Arbitration Scheme; or (ii) for all other disputes regardless of the amount in dispute, the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators' Cost Controlled Arbitration Rules.
 - Save where stipulated in the relevant above arbitration scheme, the arbitrator shall rule on the allocation of the costs of arbitration. Any arbitration will be conducted in London and in the English language.
 - Nothing in this clause 18.11 shall prevent either party from applying at any time to the Court for interim or injunctive relief on the grounds of breach, or threatened breach, of the other party's obligations of confidentiality under this Agreement, or infringement, or threatened infringement, of the applicant's Intellectual Property Rights.
- 18.12 Publicity: The Supplier shall not and shall procure that none of its suppliers or subcontractors shall issue any press release or other public document, or make any public statement with respect to the subject matter of the Contract without the Customer's prior written approval. The Supplier may not use any name, trademarks, or service marks of the Customer or refer to the Customer directly or indirectly in any media release, public announcement, or public disclosure relating to the Contract or its subject matter including in any promotional or marketing materials, customer lists, or business presentations without obtaining prior written consent from the Customer, which consent the Customer may at its sole discretion withhold.
- 18.13 Governing law and jurisdiction: The Contract, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims), shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and the parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
